An introduction from our CEO

Thank you for your interest in becoming a Trustee at Penny Brohn UK.

Penny Brohn UK is a 46-year-old cancer charity whose charitable purpose is to provide healthcare and support for people living with a cancer diagnosis.

Our cancer services are free of charge and are available to everyone both online and in person. We support any adult with any type of cancer in the UK by providing the tools and support they need to feel better with their cancer diagnosis and to enjoy a better quality of life whether pre or post treatment. We offer a range of ways to learn and experience how simple evidence-based lifestyle and complimentary approaches can help cancer clients feel more resilient. All our services are led by our qualified and experienced practitioner team.

Our headquarters are in North Somerset at Ham Green on a beautiful therapeutic 11-acre site adjacent to the river Avon.

We receive no government funding so rely solely on the generosity of public donations and trust and foundations as well as our own commercial and social enterprise to cover the costs of our services.

If appointed as a volunteer Trustee, you will be instrumental in helping to inform our strategic direction and our operational activity.
